

Arithmetization: from a computation to a checkable algebraic claim

“Low degree” means degree far below the field size — the property a random query can test cheaply.